All membership requirements must be met for entering The Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show and NRHA approved shows.

Article 1. Introduction

The Non Pro Derby Classic is for adult amateur riders with Arabian and Half-Arabian horses aged 6, 7 & 8 years. There will be an Arabian and a Half-Arabian class with adult amateur divisions within each class.

Article 2. General Rules.

1. The Non Pro Derby will be run under USEF and NRHA rules. Where a conflict arises between the two, USEF rules will supersede NRHA rules.
2. This is not an Arabian Horse Association qualifying class.
3. The Scottsdale Show shall be responsible for:
 - a. Scheduling classes
 - b. Hiring judges and scribes
 - c. Collecting entry fees
4. The ARHA board shall be responsible for:
 - a. Collecting nomination payments
 - b. Setting the close of nominations date
 - c. Working with the NRHA
 - d. Providing NRHA required representation

Article 3. Examination of Entries and Verification of Identities

1. By enrolling in the Non Pro Derby the rider/owner grants the AHA, ARHA, and NRHA the right to have the nominated horse and rider examined or inspected for any purpose, including but not limited to the purpose of verifying its identity by AHA officials, staff or any other persons that the AHA requests to make such examination or inspection.
2. In the event that doubt should arise regarding the identity of any horse nominated in the derby, AHA shall make every effort to verify that horse's identity, including but not limited to blood typing or testing. The ARHA committee shall have the right to withhold any Derby prize monies which would otherwise be due and payable pending the outcome of the investigation to verify a horse's identity.

In the event the horse's identity cannot be satisfactorily verified, no further prize money shall be paid to the party whose name appears on the nomination entry form.

3. The ARHA board will advise the recorded owner in writing of any proposal to cancel the Non Pro Derby entry of a horse or rider and the reasons supporting this proposal.

Article 4. Limit of Liability

1. The AHA, The Scottsdale Show Committee, members of the ARHA board, its directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents will attempt to obtain true and complete information in connection with the registration of horses, transfers and all other matters relating to AHA, The Scottsdale Show and ARHA board activities. Neither the AHA, The Scottsdale Show nor the ARHA board members, its directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents shall be liable in any way, whether in damages or otherwise, in connection with entry, refusal of entry or transfer, cancellation of entry, the operation or administration of the derby, or for any other activities engaged in by, or on behalf of, the AHA, The Scottsdale Show or the ARHA board in connection with the derby.
2. Participants in the derby agree that damages for any successful claims against the AHA, The Scottsdale Show, or the ARHA board which is based upon the way a class is run, the judging thereof, the scheduling or the interpretation of the applicable rules shall be limited to liquidated damages in the amount of the entry fees.
3. If not with standing the release signed by a participant in the program and the above provision of the program rule, any liability to a participant should arise on the part of AHA, The Scottsdale Show or ARHA board, such liability shall be limited as liquidated damages, to an amount equal to the entry fees paid by the participant.

Article 5. Dispute Resolution and Amendments to the Rules.

1. In the event that a dispute of issue should arise regarding the implementation of the Non Pro Derby program which cannot be resolved solely by reference to these rules or which requires that they be interpreted the dispute or issue shall be resolved by decision of the ARHA board, upon written petition submitted by an interested party to the ARHA board. The petition should not be submitted to a Commissioner(s), as all cases are reviewed on an anonymous basis. All decisions by the ARHA board on disputes or issues raised under the provision of this section shall be consistent with the purpose of the derby rule and shall be final. Written notice of the decision of the ARHA board stating the basis for the decision shall be sent to the Petitioning party.
2. The ARHA board may amend these rules from time to time as it deems necessary.
3. Recovery of Non Pro Derby Prize Money Wrongfully Received: If, in accordance with application protest or disciplinary procedures of AHA, NRHA, USEF, or ARHA, a determination by any of these entities establishes, expressly or implicitly, that a person or horse was not qualified to participate in the Non Pro Derby and prize money and prizes were received, all such money and prizes shall be refunded to the ARHA board within 60 days after the written demand is made by the ARHA board. In the event that the ARHA board is required to refer any such matter for collection to an attorney, a collection agency, or to institute a legal proceedings, the ARHA board shall, in addition to the Non Pro Derby prize money wrongfully received, be entitled to recover from the person receiving said money interest at the rate of 12% per annum compounded annually from the date the money was received, as well as all costs of collection, including reasonable attorney's fees and collection agency fees.
